A to Z Speech Therapy

Website: <https://atozspeechtherapy.com>

Email: contact@atozspeechtherapy.com

Phone: (864) 659-0604

At A to Z Speech Therapy, we believe that improving the ability to communicate is fundamental to having fulfilling interactions with others. It is our goal to treat communication disorders in an empathetic and efficient manner so that speech therapy is no longer needed. We strive to create effective, easy-to-follow therapy plans that can be incorporated into normal daily life. Our treatment plans are created to fit your family and its existing routine. Parents have praised A to Z for being able to teach families how to help their children in terms they can understand. Progress is monitored at each visit and adapted to fit as speech needs change. As a result, in Pediatric Speech Therapy, over 90% of clients under 3 with language delay no longer need therapy by the time they enter preschool.

Walgreens Distribution Center

Website: <https://jobs.walgreens.com/en/distribution>

Our distribution centers, regional warehouses and retail stores have become a model for other companies that are interested in hiring people with disabilities. For the last 17 years, our Transitional Work Group (TWG) and Retail Employee Disability Initiative (REDI) programs have successfully provided training and other accommodations to this underrepresented population with so much to offer. Since the program's beginnings, we've expanded to 12 distribution centers and over 750 stores across the country and have hired more than 1,400 people between both programs. In 2023, Walgreens launched a third hiring program for people with disabilities in our micro-fulfillment centers and was recognized by Disability: IN with a 100% score on its Disability Equality Index for the seventh year in a row.
